

CREATE EXCEPTIONAL HOSPITALITY EXPERIENCES

Study Hospitality management at one of New Zealand's leading schools and open a world of possibilities within the exciting hospitality industry! With huge demand from hotels, cafes, bars and restaurants there is something for everyone!

With recent changes to immigration settings in New Zealand students who come to study to train in Hospitality Management may now be eligible to spend an extended period of time applying the skills they have learned while studying in New Zealand to develop themselves for a rewarding career in international career in Hospitality Management!

Your Pathways

Diploma in Hospitality Management (Level 5)

Duration: 35 weeks

Award: New Zealand Diploma in
Hospitality Management (Level 5)

Diploma in Hospitality Management (Level 6)

Duration: 40 weeks

includes a 20 week full-time
paid internship

Award: New Zealand Diploma in Hospitality
Management (Level 6)

Option 1

Bachelor of International Hospitality Management (Hospitality Enterprise/ Hospitality Management)*

Up to 180 credits toward the 360 credits degree Minimum
additional 18 months

*Degree awarded by AUT

Option 2

Seek employment with an accredited employer in
New Zealand (most of the employers who offer paid
internships are accredited employers) and if successful
you may have the option to work for up to 3 years on the Accredited Employer
Workplace Visa.#

Option 3

Return to your home country
to settle down, or seek to apply their skills in another country.

NEW ZEALAND.COM
Licence No.100751

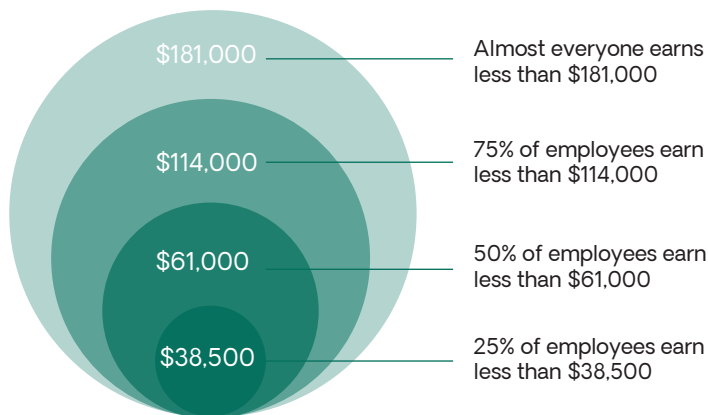

#For most updated information of post study work visa in New Zealand, please refer to Immigration New Zealand official website at <https://www.immigration.govt.nz/new-zealand-visas/options/study/working-during-after-your-study/staying-to-work-after-study>

Employability

With a hospitality qualification you can take your career around the world. Hospitality careers cover everything from creating experiences for people in some of the world's most exciting and exotic destinations to hosting, accommodating and managing events.

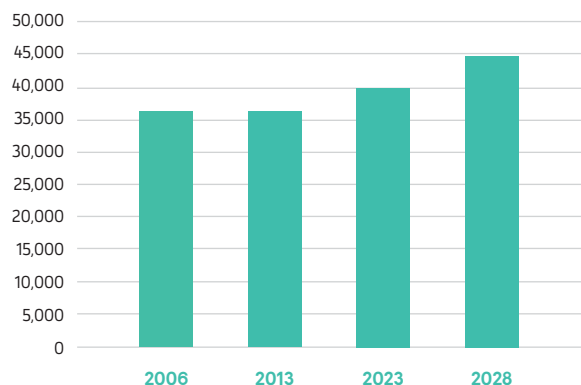

New Zealand hospitality businesses are often made up of workers from a wide range of different countries and cultures.

If you want to be a manager in the hospitality industry, you must get a general manager's licence and licence controller qualification. Apprenticeships are available in the hospitality industry.

Food / Hospitality / Tourism / Catering Jobs Salary Distribution in New Zealand. Source: www.salaryexplorer.com

Employment chart

Source: Statistics NZ Census and MBIE projections

Employment of hospitality workers was stable from 2006 to 2013. Longer-term, demand for hospitality workers is expected to rise as the economy remains strong and tourism increases. Employment growth of about 1.7% per year is projected to 2028.

The chances of getting a job are generally good, as employment numbers are large and staff demand is high.

Source: careers.govt.nz

Top 5 reasons why thousands of students like you chose NZMA

"NZMA offers far more than education: They give hope. Inspiration, and motivation."

"At NZMA our time in New Zealand was made unforgettable and we enjoyed the quality Education and support from this NZQA Catagory 1 provider"

"As international students, we have a range of courses to choose from, which are all taught by industry-experienced tutors."

"Whether you know what you want to study, or have no idea, they'll help you with the tools and support you need to start your journey."

"We have smaller classes, which gives us more one-on-one time with our tutor - and more chance to get to know our classmates. And we found the tutors can adapt the way they teach to suit our learning style."

Just some of the places our graduates are working

"NZMA is giving me the skills for my future. I really enjoy coming to college to learn, and see the loving, caring and friendly tutors. They make a huge difference and really make you feel part of the family. We have great opportunities to be involved with work placements and gain great work experience."

- Karlina Cowan

NZMA Hospitality Graduate, runs her own cafe business in South Auckland

Overview

Diploma in Hospitality Management (Level 5 & Level 6)

What You Will Learn and Gain

DIPLOMA IN HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT (LEVEL 5)

Award: New Zealand Diploma in Hospitality Management (Level 5)

This diploma-level course will give you the skills to become a junior manager in a hotel or hospitality business. Focused around food and beverage, you'll learn about management techniques and effective teamwork as well as how to develop menus and how marketing for hospitality works.

You'll be able to put your leadership skills to the test by managing events and get the chance to be in charge of The Culinary Collective's training restaurant on a regular basis too. This will give you hands-on experience with cash handling, restaurant service and functions.

Outcome

- Manage hospitality facilities, hospitality inventory and supplies to achieve yield and/or revenue targets. 20 credits
- Manage hospitality operating procedures and compliance requirements. 10 credits
- Apply staffing strategies to facilitate positive staff relationships in a hospitality business or environment. 10 credits
- Manage hospitality operations in a hospitality business or environment. 60 credits
- Manage marketing and supply of service products in the hospitality sector. 20 credits

DIPLOMA IN HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT (LEVEL 6)

Award: New Zealand Diploma in Hospitality Management (Level 6)

Start building a brilliant career as a manager in the hospitality industry by taking this course. It's ideal if you have completed one of our Diploma in Hospitality Management Level 5 courses or if you already have front-line hospitality service experience.

In the first part of the course, you'll learn about hotel operations, staff management and the tools of the trade. You'll also get up to speed on how to set up and manage large scale events. In the second part of the course, you can choose between a 20 week full-time internship in the industry or 20 weeks of campus-based learning to further develop your management knowledge before you begin your career in a hotel.

Outcome

- Manage and develop hospitality staff to ensure positive customer experiences. 10 credits
- Select and apply a range of communication, consultation, negotiation and reporting strategies to facilitate positive staff relationships in hospitality management situations. 10 credits
- Analyse and apply financial management techniques to attain productivity, yield and profitability requirements for a hospitality operation. 20 credits
- Select and apply a range of strategic solutions, in response to changes in the hospitality business environment, in order to maintain or improve hospitality business performance 40 credits
- Plan and develop future business strategies that encompass financial management, product development, sales and marketing and continuous improvement processes in a hospitality environment. 40 credits

Course Information

Programme type	DIPLOMA IN HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT (LEVEL 5)	DIPLOMA IN HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT (LEVEL 6)
Delivery Mode	On Campus	On Campus
Level	Diploma - Level 5	Diploma - Level 6
Intake	February, July, October	February, July, October
Tuition fees	$17,900 NZD	$10,900 NZD
Course Related Costs	$2,500 NZD	$1,500 NZD
Duration	35 weeks	40 weeks
Internship	N/A	20 weeks
Campus	Auckland Central	Auckland Central
Entry Requirement - age	Must be at least 18	Must be at least 18
Entry Requirement - Academic	Completed high school	Completed level 5 or approved equivalent
Entry Requirement - English	IELTS 5.5 (Academic) with no band lower than 5 or equivalences approved by NZQA	IELTS 6.0 (Academic) with no band lower than 5.5 or equivalences approved by NZQA
Further study and University Pathways	This qualification may lead on to the Diploma in Hospitality Management (Level 6)	Success enables students to articulate to AUT University, receive up to 180 credits towards the 360 credits of the Bachelor of International Hospitality Management (Majors available – Hospitality Enterprise and Hospitality Management)

Find out more at
nzma.ac.nz

NEW ZEALAND.COM
Licence No.100751