Acknowledgement of Country and recognition of Australian First Nations traditional owners and cultures

Charles Darwin University acknowledges and respects the many Australian First Nations traditional custodians of the lands upon which our campuses and centres are located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Larrakia, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Darwin Casuarina, Waterfront and Palmerston campuses are located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Arrernte, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Alice Springs campus is located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Jawoyn, Wardaman and Dagomon, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Katherine campuses are located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Gadigal, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Sydney campus is located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Turrbal and Yuggera, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Brisbane centre is located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Woiworong, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Melbourne centre is located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Kaurna, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Adelaide centre is located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Whadjuk, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Perth centre is located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Warumungu, who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Tennant Creek centre is located.

We acknowledge and pay our respect to the Yolŋu who are the traditional custodians of the lands upon which our Nhulunbuy centre is located.

We also acknowledge and pay our respect to the Mirrar (Jabiru), the Kungarakan (Batchelor and Adelaide River), the Anindilyakwa (Groote Eylandt) and the Tiwi (Tiwi Islands) people.

We acknowledge Australian First Nations peoples' long tradition of sustaining their communities and environments over thousands of years. They are the first educators and first innovators.

They are the holders of knowledge that makes an important contribution to the improvement of our local, national and global communities. We extend our respect to Elders – past, present and emerging – and to all First Nations people.

You can study ELICOS, pathway programs, TAFE courses, undergraduate, postgraduate and higher degrees by research. We have courses for all levels.

Personal

With small class sizes, lecturers know your name and provide personalised support and advice.

We are leaders in research

82% of research at CDU is at world standard.

Supportive

You will receive dedicated support from academic staff and personal support staff, who will work with you throughout your studies to ensure your success.

We lead the return of international students

CDU was the first university to welcome a flight of international students back to Australia during the COVID-19 pandemic.

*Good Universities Guide 2023.

ERA Research Excellence Ranking 2018.

Our study locations

CDU has approximately 22,000 students, online and on campuses, with over 2,800* international students from more than 69 different countries. This sets the scene for a truly inclusive multicultural environment for study and career development. Our main campus is located in the suburb of Casuarina in Darwin, with study locations also in Palmerston, the Darwin Waterfront, Alice Springs and Sydney.

*As at June 2023

Our vibrant Northern Territory

Why Darwin? Australia's best-kept secret

Multicultural

Almost one-quarter of the Darwin population speaks a language other than English at home. While in Darwin, you can enjoy the many multicultural community groups, markets and international festivals.

Close to home

Darwin is the gateway to Asia, with a four-and-a-half-hour flight to Singapore.

A laid-back lifestyle

Wide-open spaces, tropical vibes, good public transport and little traffic.

Young population

A median age of 32 with a population of 140,000.

Tropical weather

As Australia's only tropical capital city, Darwin's weather is similar to the neighbouring countries.

Nature

Surrounded by world-class national parks, including Kakadu, Nitmiluk and Litchfield, you can experience stunning Australian wildlife and outback adventures.

Indigenous culture

Approximately 30% of the Northern Territory's population is Indigenous, and more than 4,000 Indigenous students study at CDU each year. There are many opportunities to experience and celebrate local culture.

History

The Northern Territory tells a unique story of ancient art and culture, wartime heroics and pioneering resilience.

International Compliance support

Our dedicated International Compliance team is available to assist you with compliance with your visa obligations. It is a requirement that you are familiar with your rights and responsibilities as a student visa holder.

Visa compliance

Your student visa is the document issued by the Department of Home Affairs that allows you to enter Australia to study. This document is facilitated by your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE). If you need to reduce your study load, take intermission or extend your CoE, you will need to contact this team.

Orientation

Attending Orientation is a compulsory student visa requirement, and all new students can join the fun and excitement. During Orientation you will receive information about life in your new city and an introduction to CDU, including:

- meet and greet with CDU staff
- enrolment advice
- overview of your student visa conditions
- information about student support services
- campus tours
- lots of fun activities to get to know your new university and fellow students and the University.

CDU Buddy Program

We facilitate a Buddy Program designed to assist new commencing international students with their transition to study at CDU.

You will be paired with a current student who will provide friendly and practical assistance, establish a supportive network for you and help you integrate into the CDU community.

“ I think the program, overall, brings benefits to all Junior and Senior buddies. We make new friends, share reliable experiences, and information. These relationships can be maintained during the course to support each other.”

Junior Buddy Participant, March 2022

Leading the return of international students to Australia

During the COVID-19 pandemic, CDU were the first and only university to welcome a flight of international students back to Australia. CDU organised a charter flight to safely bring students to the Northern Territory from Mainland China, Vietnam, Hong Kong SAR, Indonesia, and Japan.

Once the international borders opened in December 2021, CDU personally communicated with hundreds of students through dedicated social media groups and support staff to ensure students were able to arrive safely in Darwin. At the same time, CDU facilitated the Buddy Program.

Accommodation options

At CDU, you have a range of accommodation choices to suit your budget and lifestyle. You may like to live on campus or off campus. Details of both can be found below.

Learn more about accommodation

On-campus accommodation

Living on campus will allow you to meet new people from across Australia and all over the world. All rooms are semi-furnished; you just need to unpack your bags and make the space your own. Get involved in campus life and access campus facilities at your doorstep.

International House Darwin (IHD)

IHD is surrounded by lush tropical gardens, located on the CDU Casuarina campus. There is a vibrant community that takes advantage of the Territory lifestyle through a range of events run by IHD for residents.

The rooms are semi-furnished and IHD residents have access to a variety of onsite facilities, including Wi-Fi, an outdoor swimming pool, games room, BBQ area, bicycles and a complimentary shuttle bus service to key locations around Darwin.

Become part of the IHD community with short-term and long-term options and various room types available.

Learn more about IHD

Alice Springs Student Accommodation (ASSA)

ASSA accommodates CDU students, students from other universities undertaking placements, CDU staff, and visiting guests and groups. All rooms are semi-furnished. You can choose from twin-share and sole occupancy rooms across two houses and take advantage of communal kitchen areas, a self-service laundry and Wi-Fi. Stay for a couple of nights, a week, or longer. We have flexible contracts to suit.

Learn more about ASSA

Off-campus accommodation

Off-campus accommodation options include purpose-built student accommodation at UniLodge or private rental accommodation. If you are interested in living off campus, we offer a free and confidential service which provides information and advice on housing options, tenancy advice, and support and assistance with accommodation problems.

UniLodge

UniLodge Darwin student accommodation is a convenient option for students studying at Casuarina. It neighbours Casuarina Square shopping centre and is only a 10-minute walk from the Casuarina campus.

Private rental accommodation

Several organisations advertise available accommodation. Please note some of these organisations are external to CDU and the University cannot take responsibility for the information provided by such organisations:

- Websites
 - realestate.com.au
 - domain.com.au
 - gumtree.com.au
- Facebook – Marketplace.

StudyStays

CDU StudyStays is a listing site to facilitate the connection between our students and private rentals, ensuring that students find the perfect place to call home during their studies. The StudyStays platform simplifies the process of finding suitable accommodation, providing a safe and supportive environment for students to thrive.

Homestay

Students who are new to Australia enjoy the benefits of homestay programmes to get a taste of local life. An international student and a local person or family in the host country exchange cultures during a homestay. For an agreed-upon duration and cost, the "host" offers accommodation and assistance. Meals, assistance, and other activities are all options for homestays. The students gain an understanding of the language, way of life, and local customs.

How much does it cost to live in Australia?

The Department of Home Affairs has financial requirements you must meet to receive a student visa for Australia. Therefore, knowing the average living costs in Australia is an important part of your financial preparation.

The cost of living in Australia varies from city to city, and students should not expect to fund their studies or living costs in Australia through part-time employment only. The Australian Government website provides an approximate guide to expenses according to the city and lifestyle.

Australian Government
website

Estimated living expenses

The table below indicates Darwin and Sydney's estimated living expenses.

Fees and payments

During your studies, you will need to purchase textbooks and other items required to study. Textbooks can vary from $200 to $500 per semester, depending on your course. Other expenses might include stationery, printing, purchasing a laptop or computer, protective clothing, work materials, working with children clearances and computing programs. These will depend on your course.

Faculty of Arts and Society

Message from the Pro Vice-Chancellor Professor Ruth Wallace

The Faculty of Arts and Society leads positive global change and advances social justice through our teaching, research and collaboration with industry and the community.

The faculty brings people and places to life. From that, our desire to think, examine, express and create grows. This drives us to act collectively for positive social change and advance an inquisitive, harmonious and equitable society, particularly for those who are most vulnerable.

We strive to prepare students to be teachers, creative thinkers and innovators in a complex, changing world. We bring together expertise in education, business, law, Indigenous knowledge practices, human geography, disaster preparedness and management, languages, humanities, and the creative industries.
