"I chose this degree because I had been told that AUT was the best university for hospitality, and specifically for event management. I had spoken with people in the industry, and they had close relationships with AUT and had hired graduates from the hospitality degree. One of the key reasons I chose AUT was its modern and innovative approach to learning and education."

Bachelor of International Hospitality Management

Why choose International Hospitality Management?

With a hospitality degree you can take your career anywhere. Hospitality careers cover everything from creating experiences for people in some of the world’s most exciting and exotic destinations to hosting, accommodating and managing events. The degree is widely recognised and acclaimed by the country’s top hospitality and tourism operators. You learn to manage food and beverage, and accommodation operations and develop key skills in human resource management, strategic management, and sales and marketing. Your final year includes valuable workplace experience, working with an organisation on a project related to your studies.

What you’ll learn

Year 1

In your first year you take courses that cover fundamental hospitality concepts, including the courses International Hospitality Management and Applied Food and Beverage Management (Restaurant).

You explore themes of hospitality for social change and what it means to be hospitable within hospitality organisations and society, while still focusing on the practical skills required.

Year 2 & 3

In your second and third year, you develop in-depth skills and knowledge of hospitality through your chosen major and can take courses from a range of other areas. Issues of sustainability, ethics and social justice will be explored in all the hospitality courses you take.

The degree is flexible enough to enable you to specialise in more than one hospitality discipline, or to take a major or minor from outside hospitality, alongside the core courses all students take. You can choose from hundreds of majors, minors and electives and build a degree that fits your passions and interests.

You choose:

- A Bachelor of International Hospitality Management major (120 points) and
- One of the following options:
- A second major¹
- A first minor (60 points) and a second minor (60 points) ¹
- A minor (60 points) and elective courses (60 points) ¹
