2024 INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS COURSE GUIDE

NZMANZMANZMA

WELCOME TO NZMA

The world has changed a lot in the last two years. We've seen big developments in the way we work, communicate and in the way we approach learning.

At NZMA we're not afraid of change. We pride ourselves on our innovative spirit and look to pursue excellence in everything we do.

The DNA of NZMA is unique. Our students, our people, and the culture we've created here is like no other place. Our organisation creates an environment that everyone can belong to, putting students at the centre of what we do by providing a positive educational experience for all students so they learn to move ahead. This clear focus helps the students find their version of success and that in turn, helps their community.

We celebrate our differences and embrace the diversity of our students and their communities.

We especially celebrate the fact that we are an attainable, realistic option for our students with smaller class sizes, supportive tutors and campuses that offer real world practical spaces to learn.

We're not just tutorials and lectures, we're a place where you can evolve through personal and educational change, a place where students' potential is nurtured and respected.

At NZMA we're changing the landscape of education into something better. For some young people we can offer another chance at a better future, for others we can join them as they take the first step on their new journey.

NZMA is part of NZMA Ltd. We're New Zealand's largest Category One Private Training Establishment.

NZMA have been granted the FernMark Licence (Licence number NZFM100751) by New Zealand Government – showcasing the trust and credibility of the academic offering NZMA provides to its learners.

The FernMark is used by New Zealand government departments across the world. It represents the story of who we are and where we're from, our New Zealand Story. It's a symbol people recognise and trust – a trademark that embodies our values of kaitiaki, integrity, ingenuity – the values of our New Zealand Story.

HISTORY OF THE SILVER FERN

The Silver Fern is one of New Zealand's most recognised, long-standing, and respected national symbols. Since the late 19th Century our fern has been worn with pride by our sports teams, with honour by our soldiers and used to represent our country all over the world. But why is the Silver Fern so special? Māori hunters and warriors would use the silver underside of the fern leaves to find their way. When bent over, the fronds would catch the moonlight and illuminate a path through the forest.

Today, the Silver Fern is still guiding the way, just as it has for over 150 years. The New Zealand Government and key private businesses have helped grow the FernMark into a recognisable and valuable icon. Tourism New Zealand and New Zealand Trade and Enterprise have also adopted the Silver Fern as the country of origin symbol for New Zealand. And now, the FernMark gives us the opportunity to represent New Zealand on the world stage and bring international students on a journey to our shores through our New Zealand Story.

Explore while you study

New Zealand is proudly multicultural, and we respect and welcome international students.

The New Zealand Government's Code of Practice requires education providers to keep students safe and well during their study, including during their recreational time.

New Zealand has it all – world-class education, a great lifestyle, diverse communities, vibrant cities, stunning natural scenery and an unbeatable range of outdoor activities, all within a small area. Cities such as Auckland and Wellington offer plenty of cultural activities, while those who love the great outdoors have glaciers, mountains, rainforests and coastlines to explore.

"There was something 'profoundly different' about New Zealand compared with the rest of the world, and it was something the world could learn from. It's a certain sense of duty to each other, that you're part of the team, that you will sacrifice for each other. That empathy, that love and respect, whatever it is that binds you together – we hope to be as much a part of that as we can be."

ABOUT NZMA

Here at NZMA, we don't just see a potential student, we see the student's potential to learn, grow and change - whether they know their career or have no idea. We've created a learning environment that is fun, supportive and helps all of our students to thrive in their own way.

We change lives, in big ways and small. Regardless of which campus you're considering for potential students, at NZMA we all share the same goal: To help every single student learn to move ahead.

Starting from the first welcoming smile on day one, our students will experience tutors who go the extra mile, find themselves heard when no one else will listen, and on graduation day students will not only feel proud of themselves - they'll feel our collective pride for them as well.

As a Category 1 Provider, students can choose from over 30 courses, some of which are taught by two other schools that are part of the NZMA family: The Culinary Collective and The New Zealand Institute of Sport.

Highly rated education & support

NZQA Category 1

At NZMA we are committed to offering quality learning. We are ranked as a Category 1 provider on NZQA's EER rating, which is the best rating possible for education providers.

This means that we're in the highest tier of tertiary educators. We hold ourselves to these standards with every interaction we have with our students.

Top-of-the- line facilities

Our purpose-built facilities go far beyond standard classrooms. On our various campuses, you'll find commercial training kitchens, student-run cafés, gyms, resource rooms, computer labs, gaming studios and barista training areas to help students build their confidence in real-world environments.

Our two dedicated Auckland Trades campuses have large outdoor areas for students to work on projects including 2 bedroom houses and timber sleepouts.

Small details, big difference

With smaller class sizes, students aren't just another number. Our welcoming and friendly study environment provides more one-on-one time with their tutors - and more chance to get to know their classmates.

Less students in each class also means that our highly experienced tutors can adapt the way they teach to suit individual learning styles.

NZMA CAREER SUPPORT

We have an NZMA Careers team at each campus to help you with everything you need to prepare you for work, and help find you work. Our Career and Employment navigators will help you with valuable job hunting skills, like CV writing and interview techniques, help you find part-time work while you study and full-time work once you graduate. Contact a Careers Advisor at careers@nzma.ac.nz

We have great partnerships with a variety of employers throughout New Zealand. We nurture these relationships and are proud to be working together to benefit the industries we love. You can find additional information on our website at nzma.ac.nz/why-choose-nzma/careers

Here are a few of the employers who have partnered with us.

'NZMA students bring with them a real sense of passion and drive for hospitality and catering into the workplace. They are an asset to our service. Our continued relationship with NZMA stands testament to the quality and standard of hospitality students engaged each year. This replicates into the directive of all the trainers, tutors and employment relations team that keep their finger on the pulse of industry trends and demands.'

COURSE CATEGORIES

NZMA P.11 Health

At NZMA our range of health courses will help students learn the basics of health to become a healthcare support worker in the community; or they can build a foundation for further study as a nurse, midwife or public health worker.

NZMA P.14 Pharmacy

Is someone you know good with numbers, enjoys dealing with people and has an interest in health? An NZMA Pharmacy Technician qualification can set them up for a lifetime of job security with the chance to grow and build their skills.

NZMA P.16 Trades

Choosing from Construction, Electrical Engineering, Plumbing & Gasfitting or Painting & Plastering means a student will finish up with everything they need to land an apprenticeship or an entry-level job in the trades industries.

NZMA P.18 Cookery

Whether they love baking or dream of becoming a rockstar chef, our practical, hands-on courses help students build work-ready kitchen skills to start their journey as a chef or baker. Taught by The Culinary Collective - NZMA's cooking & baking school.

NZMA P.20 Hospitality

Whether they want to become a bartender, barista, work in a hotel, or run their own cafe one day, students will learn key skills, build their confidence and get work experience to help them on their way.

NZMA P.22 ECE

Early Childhood Education (ECE) is where students will learn the core skills for the education and care of infants and young children. The practical, hands-on experience they'll gain from work placements in an ECE setting will help them move towards a job in a childcare centre.

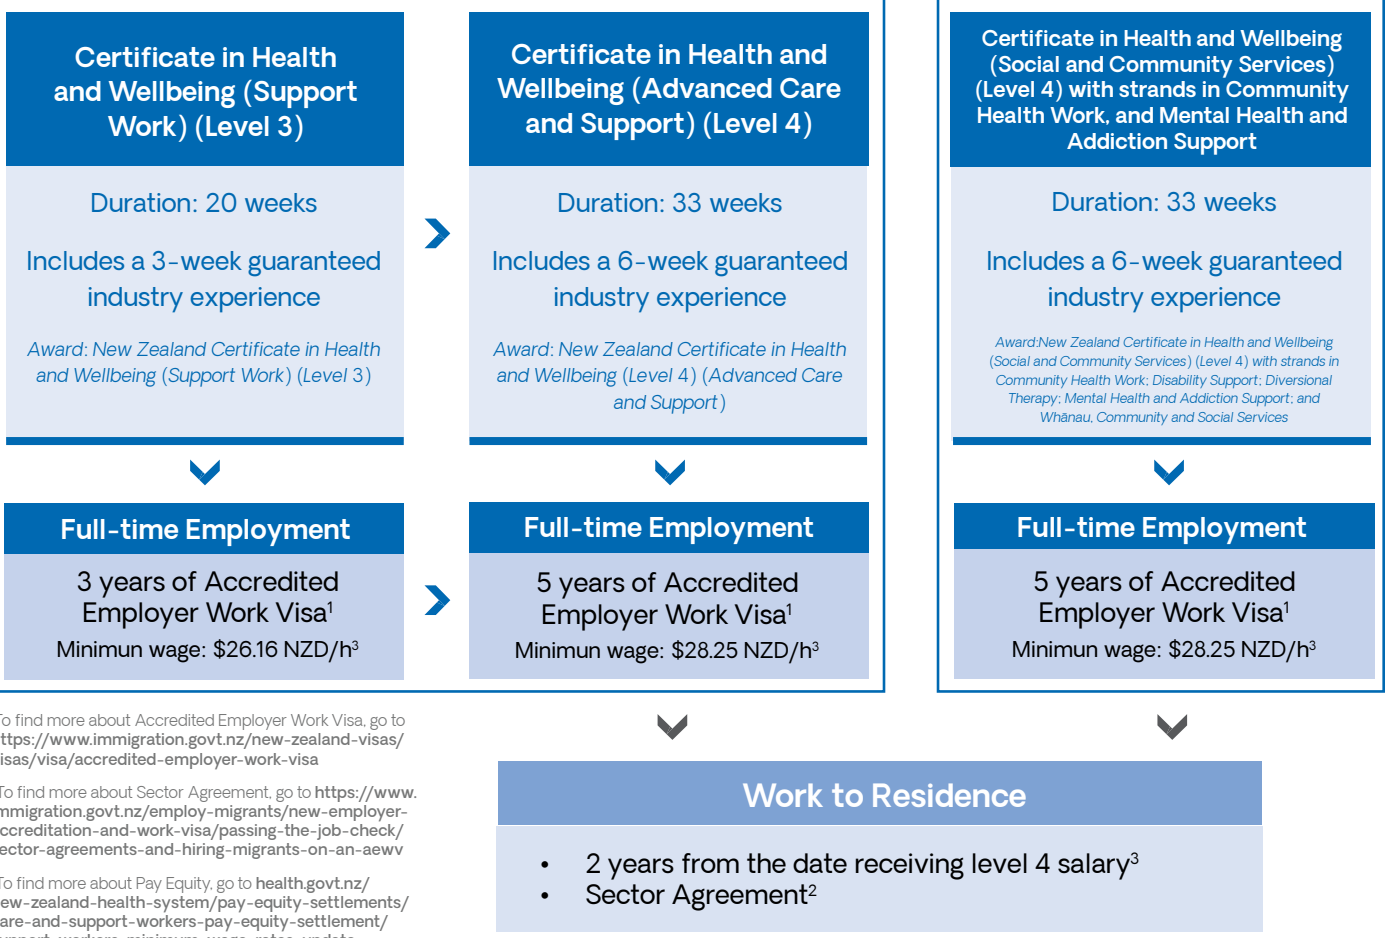

NZMA P.24 Sport

Students will build their confidence and passion for sport with these fun courses. They'll learn to develop custom fitness plans, take part in fitness training, go on field trips, experience mentoring and more. Taught by NZ Institute of Sport - NZMA's sport & fitness school.

CHRISTINE DEJANDO
Graduate, Certificate in Pharmacy Technician (Level 5)

"I actually started my study with another college before, but the pharmacy I was employed with also had Pharmacist Interns, so it was hard to get support. I decided to study full-time with NZMA, which also meant I would qualify much faster. NZMA teach 'best practice' so I learned the right way to do things – and the reasons why we do things this way. I also really enjoyed learning in-depth about medicines. I have been working at Parkside Pharmacy in Auckland, as a senior technician since I graduated a year ago."

Who is this course for?

Whether you are employed, a volunteer, or not currently working in early childhood care and education and would like to gain a recognised qualification, you can pursue a fulfilling career in early childhood education while you study.

You'll learn child development, observation, learning and play while putting your skills directly into practice to deliver quality learning for our tamariki. You will also learn to develop communication skills to build relationships with children, parents, family and colleagues.

Why study at NZMA?

Find the right study option to meet your learning needs.

On Campus: You'll experience the best of both worlds with a unique combination of only 12 hours per week on campus and flexible learning from home. This means you can work and study at the same time if you choose. Plus, during your studies, you'll have the opportunity to gain real-world experience through a 4-week work placement.

Streamed: If you are employed, either paid or unpaid, and seeking a more personal learning experience can enjoy 10 hours of class per week by joining streamed lessons online by friendly industry experienced tutors. This will give you the flexibility to join in on lessons from anywhere, while still getting the support and interactions with your classmates and tutor online.

Online: You'll need to be working or volunteering with a registered early childhood education provider to take advantage of our online study option. This will help you advance your skills while you continue to work, giving you the flexibility, tools and resources to learn anytime, anywhere at your own pace.

This qualification meets with Ministry of Education requirements and by 2025, all home-based educators must have this qualification. It is internationally recognised so you can travel and work as a Nanny or Au Pair and provides entry into our Diploma in Early Childhood Education Level 5 programme.

What you'll learn

- The context of Early Childhood Education in Aotearoa
- How to create and use age-appropriate resources for the development of young children.
- Confidence and understanding of child learning and development
- The early childhood curriculum Te Whariki
- Assessment for learning and teaching practice in an early childhood setting
- Professional practice informed by learning and development theories, government strategies and policy
- Human development and learning
- Health and safety policies and procedures in practice; plans and evaluation

Next course

DIPLOMA IN EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (LEVEL 5)

40 weeks including a 7-week internship

If you are employed, volunteering or not yet in the industry and looking to enhance your skills before moving into an early childhood education role. This programme will develop your knowledge and skills as a Kaiako, enabling you to provide and support the education and care of infants, toddlers, and young children.

During your studies, you'll strengthen your skills and reflect on your understanding towards age-appropriate resources, how to encourage tamariki engagement, and the benefits to their learning and development.

SUPPORT ON CAMPUS

Learning Support

Studying overseas is exciting and rewarding – but sometimes it can also be challenging. We are here to provide all the support and care students need to achieve their goals.

Our tutors work closely to support students in academics and overall well-being, ensuring a personalised and enriching experience. This collaborative approach extends beyond the classroom to empower every student, fostering a vibrant academic setting where success stories emerge from our close-knit community.

International Student Support

International student support officers help students with accommodation, health, course guidance and pathway options, as well as administration issues such as visa renewals and insurance.

Health and Wellbeing

We have staff trained and registered with Red Cross for minor health and wellbeing issues at the College. If students need further medical treatment, a doctor is available by appointment.

Studentsafe insurance

The Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021 requires all international students studying in New Zealand to have appropriate health and travel insurance during their period of study.

The Code sets out minimum standards of advice and care that international students can expect and provides a procedure that you can follow if you have any concerns about your education providers and agents. Our responsibility for pastoral care of international students under the Code is for the duration of enrolment.

Note 1
The listed outcomes represent the minimum scores or grades for each test or qualification that qualify a student for enrolment at each programme level. Students with higher scores or grades than required for a particular programme level may still enrol at that level. Where the entry requirements for a programme are for a higher English proficiency outcome than is listed in the relevant row of the Table for the programme level in which the student is being enrolled, the student must meet that higher level.

Note 2
All test scores must be from a single report except:
TOEFL iBT where the test scores must be from a single report for a single test date, and the My best Scores option must not be used
LanguageCert where the test scores must be from a single report for Written (LRW) and a separate individual report for Spoken (S).

Note 3
New versions of some NZCEL qualifications, and in some cases new qualifications, were published on 13 June 2017. These are intended to replace pre-existing versions and qualifications, which have been given expiring status until discontinued on 31 December 2019.

Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students

UP Education, and its schools, is a signatory to The Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021. Published by the New Zealand Ministry of Education and administered by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA), the Code is designed to ensure international students are well informed, safe and properly cared for. Visit: nzqa.govt.nz/the-code

UP Education partners with leading universities in New Zealand and Australia to provide learning pathways to international students, equipping them with the knowledge, skills and confidence to excel at English-language universities.

Every effort was made to present accurate information in this 2024 NZMA International Students Course Guide at the time of publication 23rd January 2024.

UP Education reserves the right to change information without notice where this is considered necessary or desirable.
