ICHM works with a number of valued industry partners across hospitality and broader business industries, both within Australia and around the world, to secure placements which will enhance the career prospects of each individual student.

ICHM maintains close links with over 300 hotels, resorts and other hospitality management providers worldwide, to facilitate the WIL study periods.

Find yourself in Adelaide, South Australia

Adelaide, the South Australia's coastal capital, is home to people from all over the world. Its caring community is what truly makes it a great place to work, live and study. Its compact size means less time commuting and more time relaxing or visiting the many attractions on Adelaide's doorstep.

Adelaide also has a reputation as a city of restaurants, quality wine (70% of Australia's export wine comes from South Australia), outdoor eating and a great lifestyle.

- » 3rd most liveable city in the world¹
- » Up to 12% more affordable to live in than other major Australian cities, and has the lowest average rent in the country²
- » Over 40,000 students from 130 countries choose to study, live and work in Adelaide²
- » A "Ten Gigabit City" means the city will deliver highspeed internet services.

Ngoc Minh Chau La, also known as Iris, is a third-year bachelor's student at ICHM. She discovered ICHM through her education agent and was attracted to ICHM's due to its small class sizes that foster a close-knit community.

She finds the Bachelor of Business (Hospitality Management) interesting with the 6 months academic study and 6 months' Work Integrate Learning (WIL). She believes the course structure offers opportunity for students to practice and prepare for the industry. Amidst her first placement, the COVID-19 pandemic unexpectedly presented a hotel pre-opening opportunity which she considers a fortunate event.

Iris views the hospitality industry as a fun industry to work in, with lots of interactions! Scan the QR code to watch Iris' testimony.

"When studying at ICHM, you will have more opportunity to get into the industry with the 6 months work integrated learning (WIL). During WIL you will gain experience, knowledge and develop yourself"

Reshaj Gurung | Nepal
Master of International Hotel
Management
- ICHM Student

"I am enjoying my time in Adelaide. The environment is pretty similar to Nepal, and the people are very friendly and helpful. I get to learn new culture and tradition of Australia."

Reshaj is a Master student at ICHM. He was attracted to ICHM due to its reputation as one of the top hospitality education providers in Australia.

As an international student, he occasionally encounters language barriers; however, he finds ICHM has a good and supportive learning environment with every lecturer willing to assist in any way possible. His aspiration is to become successful manager in the future.

His word of advice: If you are really passionate about working in hospitality industry, you have to be consistent, hardworking and never give up!
