Up to 30% scholarship available

Diploma of Information Technology

The First-year Diploma Program is a two-semester course that serves as an alternative to the first year of an undergraduate degree at CDU. It's designed for students needing extra academic or English support.

Completing the Diploma of Information Technology grants direct entry into the second year of a Computer Science or Information Technology degree.

Both qualifications are accredited by the Australian Computer Society (ACS).

CDU International College

Location:	Danala - Education and Community Precinct
Duration:	2 semesters
Intake:	March, July, November
Tuition fee:	A$31,158
CRICOS code:	0100740

High school grade 12 → Diploma of Information Technology Duration: 8-9 months Delivered by CDUIC → Second Year Bachelor of Computer Science Bachelor of Information Technology Delivered by CDU

Course structure

- 7 core units
- 1 specialist elective unit

Core units:
Complete the following 7 units

- IDC101 Academic Literacies Through Exploring Sustainability
- IDC102 Cultural Intelligence and Capability
- IDC103 Business and Professional Communications
- IDI101 Computing Fundamentals
- IDI102 Software Now
- IDI104 Operating Systems and Applications
- IDI105 Foundations of Data Science (replaces IDI103 Statistics from 2023)

Specialist elective units:
Choose 1 unit

- IDB101 Quantitative Analysis for Business
- IDB102 Introduction to Business Law
- IDB103 Introduction to Management
- IDB104 Business Economics
- IDA101 Introduction to Accounting
- IDM101 Fundamentals of Marketing

Progression requirements

To successfully complete the program, a student must pass all units with a grade of 50% or higher.

How to apply

Talk to your local education pathway counsellor.
W: cdu.up.education
E: international.college@cdu.edu.au

POWERED BY UP EDUCATION