

MASTER OF TEACHING AND LEARNING (EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION)

NZTC Master of Teaching and Learning (ECE) is approved by the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand and the New Zealand Qualifications Authority.

There are strong strands of research, pedagogical knowledge combined with professional practice at the master's level. In the centre-based mode of delivery, where the majority of study time is undertaken in an early childhood centre, there are opportunities for employment based on the centre's needs for staff.

Graduates are eligible to apply for New Zealand Teacher registration and provisional certification. Starting your career as a graduate from the NZTC Master of Teaching and Learning (ECE) provides you with opportunities to be a leader in your centre from the outset. With your strong pedagogical and research background, you will make valuable contributions to your centre in senior roles.

Highlights

- ▶ Use your master's degree to fast-track eligibility for New Zealand teacher registration upon completion of this program.
- ▶ Benefit from strong theory to practice links in your work in the centre and the assessments.
- ▶ Enjoy the flexibility of study at NZTC.

Centre-based learning modes to prepare students for work in a centre

Field Practice

The Master of Teaching and Learning (ECE) features strong professional experience components including 33 weeks attendance at a centre mentored by an Associate Teacher in the centre, and 80 days of practicum throughout the program, where you are supported and assessed on your practice by an NZTC Lecturer and your Associate Teacher. During your professional experience you are exposed to a range of early childhood settings, age groups, teaching approaches and philosophies.

1. The program duration stated in the offer letter is 78 weeks, which reflects NZQA approval. However, the actual completion time will depend on the scheduled teaching period for all subjects and practicums (52 weeks), the Christmas holiday duration (ranging from 6 to 19 weeks), and any additional time required by students to complete all subjects or practicums."

2. A NZD $10,000 scholarship is available for a limited number of students. To apply, students must participate in an interview with the NZTC recruitment team or submit a personal statement. Terms and conditions apply.
