UP English Language Test

The UP English Language Test (UPELT) has been developed to help prospective students with obtaining their English language scores prior to enrolment.

The UPELT runs on a fixed schedule every Wednesday, from 12pm NZT. Bookings can be made via the UP admissions team, admissions@up.education.

The UPELT has four sections: reading, listening, writing, and speaking. It is a well-rounded assessment which consists of computer-based, hand-written, and examiner-led tasks. There are thematic links between the four sections of the test. The content is carefully selected to ensure that it is suitable for candidates at a pre-university level.
